EASLEY APPOINTS DAVIS TO CRIMINAL JUSTICE EDUCATION AND TRAINING STANDARDS COMMISSION

RALEIGH - Gov. Mike Easley reappointed Chief Raymond Davis of Kill Devil Hills to the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission.

Davis has been the Police Chief at the Kill Devil Hills Police Department since 1996. From 1981 to 1996, he was a member of the Cumberland County Sheriffs Office. Davis served in the United States Marine Corps from 1971 until 1973.

The North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission is made up of 26 members who serve three-year terms. The responsibility of this commission is to promulgate rules and regulations, establish educational standards and to certify employees. The commission also establishes standards for training schools and instructors, certifies instructors and investigates agencies, schools and individuals.
